JAMES J. BRYNES, MD POSTER SYMPOSIUM FACT SHEET

Deadline for submissions is Friday, August 18, 2017 at 5:00 pm!

The Palm Beach County Medical Society (PBCMS) is issuing a Call for Abstracts for its Poster Symposium, as part of the Future of Medicine Summit at the Airport Hilton on October 12, 2017. PBCMS' objective for the poster presentations is to offer students, residents, fellows, and other physician scholars and opportunity to share significant research and interesting clinical vignettes with their fellow clinicians. We encourage all of our colleagues to participate in this educational program by submission of an abstract and application.

Rules and Guidelines for Abstract Submission: Eligibility: Applicant must be a member of PBCMS. If applicant is not a member at the time of submission, membership must be completed before August 18, 2017 or the entry will be inadmissible. Applicant must be a student enrolled in a Florida allopathic or osteopathic medical school, a resident or fellow in an accredited training program in Palm Beach County. Poster may be original or previously published.

Criteria for Selection: Research abstracts should contain the background, research question, protocol, methods, results and conclusions. The research can be either basic science or clinical research. Clinical vignettes should be pertinent and timely. Notification by e-mail of abstract application acceptance or rejection will be sent via email by Friday, September 1st. Authors of abstracts accepted for poster presenters must attend the PBCMS Poster Symposium on the evening of Thursday, October 12th. The poster must be placed in the space provided by 3 pm.

Content and Ethical Considerations: Posters are intended to convey a scientific result and may not contain advertisements for commercial interests, products or services. Please read and complete the attached Disclosure Form. Volunteer physician members of the PBCMS Committee on Medical Education make final decisions about eligibility. PBCMS reserves the right to deny any application that, in the opinion of the Committee, is deemed promotional, commercial or unethical. These regulations are designed to ensure that each poster presentation accepted helps achieve the purpose of stimulating research and education throughout the health care community.

Set-up and Dismantling: The poster must be placed in the space provided by 3pm on Thursday, October 12. It is permissible for non-authors to hang posters if necessary. If you require assistance, please contact PBCMS at 561-433-3940. All posters must be left up for display until Friday, October 13 at 4:00 pm. If you are not able to pick up poster at that time. Please make arrangements with PBCMS office or your program coordinator.

On-site Judging, Awards Ceremony, and Cash Prizes: Poster presentation applications are judged through an evaluation process which consists of the following criteria: value to the medical profession; scientific and/or informational content; consistency with PBCMS policy; ethical consideration; nonpromotional/noncommercial in nature; and appropriate design. Judging will occur on Thursday, October 12th from 3:30 to 5:30 pm. Winners will be announced during the evening's dinner. Cash prizes and awards will be awarded for top posters. Note: In order to qualify for the cash prizes and awards, presenters must be present during judging.

JAMES J. BYRNES, MD POSTER SYMPOSIUM DISCLOSURE FORM

Deadline for submissions is Friday, August 18, 2017 at 5:00 pm!

Disclosure Form of Relevant Financial Relationships By Authors of Poster Presentations for Poster Symposium

The intent of this disclosure is to allow Palm Beach County Medical Society (PBCMS) the opportunity to resolve any potential conflicts of interest to assure balance, independence, objectivity and scientific rigor in all of the poster presentations at the Future of Medicine Summit. All faculty and planners of PBCMS sponsored activities are expected to disclose to PBCMS any relevant financial relationships with any commercial interest that produces health care goods or services related to the content of the educational presentation in which they are involved.

Conflict of Interest:

Circumstances create a conflict of interest when an individual has an opportunity to affect CME content about products or services of a commercial interest with which she/he has a financial relationship.

Commercial Interest:

Any proprietary entity producing health care goods or services, with the exemption of non-profit or government organizations and non-health care related companies.

Financial relationships:

Those relationships in which the individual benefits by receiving a salary, royalty, intellectual property rights, consulting fee, honoraria, ownership interest (e.g., stocks, stock options or other ownership interest, excluding diversified mutual funds), or other financial benefit. Financial benefits are usually associated with roles such as employment, management position, independent contractor (including contracted research), consulting, teaching, membership on advisory committees or review panels, board membership, and other activities for which remuneration is received or expected. Relevant financial relationships would include those within the past 12 months of the person involved in the activity and his/her spouse or partner. Relevant financial relationships of your spouse or partner are those of which you are aware at the time of this disclosure.
