

2023 PBCMS Poster Symposium Saturday, September 23, 2023

Fact Sheet and Important Dates

Deadline for submission is Friday, August 4, 2023

Palm Beach County Medical Society (PBCMS) is issuing a Call for Abstracts for the 2023 Poster Symposium.

Rules and Guidelines for Abstract Submission: Eligibility: Applicant must be a member of PBCMS. If the applicant is not a member at the time of submission, membership must be completed before September 1, 2023, or the entry will be inadmissible. Applicant must be a student enrolled in a Florida allopathic or osteopathic medical school, a resident or fellow in an accredited training program in Palm Beach County. Poster must be original.

Criteria for Selection: Research abstracts should contain the background, research question, protocol, methods, results and conclusions. The research can be either basic science or clinical research. Clinical vignettes should be pertinent and timely. Notification by e-mail of abstract application acceptance or rejection will be sent via email by August 27, 2023.

Content and Ethical Considerations: Posters are intended to convey a scientific result and may not contain advertisements for commercial interests, products or services. Please read and complete the attached Disclosure Form. The members of the Poster Symposium Selection Committee and the PBCMS Executive Committee reserve the right to deny any application that, in their opinion, is deemed promotional, commercial or unethical.
